Interested individuals are encouraged to submit an online application.
Interested individuals are encouraged to submit an online application.

- Demonstrated teaching excellence in at least one and preferably more of the following areas: spatial planning and analysis, regional planning, urban systems, urban design, Indigenous, cross-cultural, and community planning, and land development
- Record of publications in peer-reviewed journals
- Success in obtaining peer-reviewed research grants
- Demonstrated capacity to initiate an externally grant funded research program

In addition to teaching, successful candidates in the Teaching and Research Stream will be expected to establish and maintain an active and externally funded research program with a preference for tri-council grants, supervise student research, participate in the School through service activities as required, and engage in community outreach through SAPL partnerships.

Qualifications Required for the Teaching Focused Stream

- Master’s degree in Planning or a closely related field
- Membership in the Canadian Institute of Planners (CIP) or equivalent professional planning organization or be eligible and committed to obtaining membership in the Canadian context
- Demonstrated professional experience within the area of planning or another related design discipline
- Demonstrated teaching excellence in practice-based studio courses and studio courses in form-based planning and physical design as well as theory or technical courses related to planning competencies
- Demonstrated teaching excellence in at least one and preferably more of the following areas: spatial planning and analysis, regional planning, urban systems, urban design, Indigenous, cross-cultural, and community planning, and land development
- Significant and relevant professional experience and demonstrated design leadership
- Peer review recognition of practice excellence

In addition to teaching, successful candidates in the Teaching Focused Stream will be expected to establish and maintain an active critical professional practice, supervise practice-oriented student research, participate in the School through service activities as required, and engage in community outreach through SAPL partnerships.

Application Instructions:

Applications are encouraged as soon as possible but will be accepted until the position is filled. Interested individuals are encouraged to submit an online application. Please indicate the stream you are applying for. A complete application includes:

- Cover letter and curriculum vitae, including the names and contact information for three referees
- A statement of teaching, scholarly, and professional experience and expertise

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In this connection, at the time of your application, please answer the following question: Are you a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada? (Yes/No)
The University of Calgary has launched an institution-wide Indigenous Strategy, ii’ taa’poh’to’p, in line with the foundational goals of Eyes High, committing to creating a rich, vibrant, and culturally competent campus that welcomes and supports Indigenous Peoples, encourages Indigenous community partnerships, is inclusive of Indigenous perspectives in all that we do.

As an equitable and inclusive employer, the University of Calgary recognizes that a diverse staff/faculty benefits and enriches the work, learning and research experiences of the entire campus and greater community. We are committed to removing barriers that have been historically encountered by some people in our society. We strive to recruit individuals who will further enhance our diversity and will support their academic and professional success while they are here. To ensure a fair and equitable assessment, we offer accommodation at any stage during the recruitment process to applicants with disabilities. Questions regarding [diversity] EDI at UCalgary can be sent to the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (equity@ucalgary.ca) and requests for accommodations can be sent to Human Resources (hrhire@ucalgary.ca). To learn more about academic opportunities at the University of Calgary and all we have to offer, view our Academic Careers website. For more information about the School of Architecture, Planning, and Landscape visit our Careers website.

Interested individuals are encouraged to submit an online application.