LABORATORY FOR INTEGRATIVE DESIGN (LID)

The Laboratory for Integrative Design (LID) research team had a productive summer! LID collaborated with Zaha Hadid Architects Computation & Design Research Group (ZHACODE) last month to deliver two 5-day design to fabrication workshops exploring timber tectonics. A full scale prototype was built at the LID as part of the workshops. Next time you're on campus, be sure to stop in and check it out. Visit the link for more details and images from the collaboration.

CBDLAB

The MAKING WAVES studio exhibition, led by SAPL alum and sessional instructor, Phil Vandermeij from SPECTACLE BUREAU opened August 17 and runs through September 22. The exhibition represents student design and fabrication work related to the Making Waves Studio Summer Intersession course. Students created multiple urban design elements to be deployed in SPECTACLE BUREAU's proposed design for the plaza around the CUPS Mural (1st St. and 2nd Ave. SW) . The exhibition is on display at the CBDLab.
