You are invited to the first Courageous Conversations Speaker event featuring Dr. Marie Battiste and Dr. Catherine Odora Hoppers. The event is hosted by the Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion.

Learn More and Register →
SAPL STUDY ABROAD ZOOM INFO SESSION | SEPTEMBER 29 | 10AM
For the 2021-2022 academic year, SAPL will offer study program opportunities in Los Angeles, Zurich, Tokyo and Barcelona. If you are unable to attend the info session, recordings will be available at:
https://www.ucalgary.ca/international/sapl-los-angeles
https://www.ucalgary.ca/international/sapl-tokyo
https://www.ucalgary.ca/international/sapl-barcelona
https://www.ucalgary.ca/international/sapl-zurich
Register→

FDAPP EXECUTIVE POSITIONS
Calling ARST students! If you're interested in joining FDAP's Executive Team, they are looking for a Jr. VP Marketing and a Jr. VP Finance. Send resumes to arc.fdap@gmail.com. Follow them on Instagram @fdapyyyc.

ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW STUDENT DISCOUNT
Students! You can get 30% off on student subscriptions for Architectural Review. Available in print/digital formats.
Learn More→

SAPL OPPORTUNITIES

TRAVEL + RESEARCH AWARDS | OCTOBER 15
If you're interested in applying for a Travel + Research Award - the deadline is a month away.
Learn More→

SAPL VOLUNTEER CREW
If you have skills and interest in visual storytelling, graphic design, photography, writing, gallery set-up or events, we need you! SAPL is putting together a team of volunteers to help animate our communication and events. To apply, submit your resume, letter of interest and portfolio (if applicable) to Vita Leung with the subject line 'SAPL volunteer'.
Learn More→

EXHIBITIONS

FUTURE OF URBAN REVITALIZATION +MAKING WAVES RECEPTION | SEPTEMBER 22 | 5PM
Join us for an urban revitalization event featuring Dr. Fabian Neuhaus, Dr. Enrica Dall'Ara and Alberto de Salvatierra. The event will also include a closing reception for the Making Waves exhibition, led by SAPL alum and sessional instructor Phil Vanderme. The exhibition is on display at the CBDLab until September 23.
Learn More→

CBDX: BORDERLANDS VIRTUAL EXHIBITION | SEPTEMBER 8-30
The top 25 entries from the competition's winners, honorable mentions and finalists are now on display in the Stantec Gallery and online. There were some incredible ideas about designers' ability to influence borders, you don't want to miss it!
View the Virtual Exhibit→

WEBINARS | CONFERENCES | COMPETITIONS

THRIVING CITIES | SEPTEMBER 29 | 4PM
SAPL dean John Brown will join a panel discussion with local experts about the new era of energy research, programming, partnerships and collaborations that motivate transdisciplinary research at UCalgary. The panel will be hosted by Dr. Ed McCauley, UCalgary president.
Register→
2021 AIA/ACSA INTERSECTIONS RESEARCH CONFERENCE | SEPTEMBER 29
This conference will focus on resilient communities and how architects can ensure the buildings and developments they design have a long-lasting beneficial impact on our communities, cities, regions and environment.
Register→

DESIGN INNOVATION COMPETITION | OCTOBER 15
Students are invited to submit finished work in the form of conceptual proposals or realized projects for the DI 2021 competition. The focus of the competition is finding and celebrating the talent that blurs boundaries between design, tech, architecture and business.
Register→

WUR URBAN GREENHOUSE CHALLENGE | OCTOBER 17
SAPL students are invited to join this year's challenge for multidisciplinary teams to develop an urban farming site featuring an indoor production structure that significantly improves the quality of life of local residents in one of the most diverse lower-income neighbourhoods of Washington DC.
Learn More→