FURNISHING THE REVITALIZATION

How a Flat Sheet of Aluminum Becomes Sustainable 3D Furniture: As part of the wider effort between SAPL and the City of Calgary to revitalize the Core, a new activation is taking place in downtown's Lot 6 this weekend from 2 to 6 p.m.

"The secret to strong, sustainable and easy-to-store furniture is curved-crease folding. The School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape at the University of Calgary is using that technique to furnish revitalized gathering spaces in downtown Calgary." (WATCH)
TRANSFORMING DOWNTOWN CALGARY FROM VACANT TO VIBRANT

Civic Commons Catalyst follow-up coverage: The University of Calgary is working with the city to bring vacant downtown spots to life with initiatives adding community spaces. UCalgary received $350,000 for the Civic Commons Catalyst (CCC) initiative, from UCalgary's School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape. (WATCH)

EXPERTS EXPLORE THE HOW AND WHY OF SOLAR NEIGHBOURHOODS

International experts present strategies and research on solar neighbourhood planning on a global and national scale at Sept. 23 seminar hosted by SAPL. (READ MORE)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONGRATULATIONS TO SANDRA ABEGGLEN!

Due to her contributions to the #CreativeHE team project in the United Kingdom, SAPL researcher Sandra Abegglen has received the prestigious 2022 Collaborative Award for Teaching Excellence (CATE). By exploring creative ways to teach and learn, the project has inspired changes in scholarly practice, enhanced scholarly activities and led to the creation and widespread adoption of open educational resources and practices. Read more HERE.

SAPL STUDENT CONFERENCE | CALL FOR COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Looking to add volunteer hours to your resume? The School is inviting students to join the organization committee for SAPL's Spring 2023 Annual Conference. The event serves as a forum for students to share their work with the wider student body, faculty, alumni, and industry experts. Those interested in volunteering are asked to e-mail Nooshin Esmaeili before Sept. 30. Visit HERE for more information.
WE GOT YOU! A NEW WAY TO INTERACT WITH YOUR MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS TEAM

In order to streamline, prioritize and maintain better awareness of all your marketing and communication needs and requests, your team of communicators is introducing a new centralized email account. This new account will be accessible by the entire team and will be constantly monitored. Thus, moving forward, we ask the SAPL community to send their marketing and communications requests and queries to sapl.marcom@ucalgary.ca.

EVENTS

BEAT TALK TORONTO PRESENTS: SUE JEAN CHUNG | Sept. 28 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. MST

Toronto-based architecture firm, Studio JCI and Building Equity in Architecture – Toronto invite the SAPL community to attend the online session: Breaking the Bamboo Ceiling – Tales of an Asian Female Architect on Site by Studio JCI’s founder and principal, Sue Jean Chung.

For more information, and to register, visit HERE.

ANNUAL ALBERTA PROFESSIONAL PLANNERS INSTITUTE CONFERENCE | Oct. 23 to 25

'Meet again 2022' comes to Canmore and online via Zoom, with artist-led workshops, keynotes by industry experts and networking sessions. The virtual conference is free for students. Register HERE. The in-person event is sold out, but people are encouraged to join the WAITLIST.

YOU CAN BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CANADIAN INSTITUTE OF PLANNERS FOR FREE | Sept. 26 at 10:30 a.m. MST

Students interested in joining the Canadian Institute of Planners at no cost are encouraged to attend an online information session on student memberships. Click HERE to register.

GALLERIES
THE STANTEC GALLERY OPEN HOUSE | Sept. 29 from 5 to 7 p.m.

Senior students in the Master of Architecture program will host an open house for their exhibition, The Devil’s Crop: Exploring Social Justice, Human Rights, Design + Dignity. The event will highlight the creative work of students seeking to design responsibly, innovatively, and sustainably. Snacks, refreshments, and a cash bar – credit and debit accepted — will be available. REGISTER

Civic Commons Catalyst - City of a Thousand Planets exhibition

Using digital renderings, 3D models and interactive offerings, the new exhibition at SAPL’s City Building Design Lab shares the innovative design research work from Phase I and Phase II of the Civic Commons Catalyst Initiative. Focused on reimagining and reactivating downtown Calgary, the showcase represents a future in which the core is sustainable, equitable, inclusive, vibrant, and prosperous. The exhibit is open Monday to Sunday from 12 to 8 p.m.

DESIGN BYTES

WATCH: WHAT EXACTLY MAKES A SKYLINE BEAUTIFUL...

In this VIDEO, Stewart Hicks uses Chicago as a case study to discuss how to appreciate the design of a skyline. The video includes a close analysis of a patch of Chicago skyline as well as some terms and concepts to use when looking at skylines from around the globe.