WHAT DOES SUSTAINABLE DESIGN LOOK LIKE IN PRACTICE?

The next Design Matters lecture will explore current methods and approaches to sustainable architecture and design with thought leader and Design Director, Kristian Ahlmark, from Danish architecture studio Schmidt Hammer Lassen Architects. Ahlmark will cover topics including, but not limited to, adaptive transformation, material circularity, and the use of timber in high-rise structures exemplified in the recently ground-breaking project, “Rocket&Tigerli”.

REGISTER HERE

This lecture is presented by

EVENTS
SAVE THE DATE: SAPLSA INDUSTRY NIGHT
Learn about the work culture, day-to-day activities, and professional expectations of industry professionals at SAPLSA's Online Industry Night on Nov. 9 from 6 to 8 p.m.

CIP STUDENT SYMPOSIUM
The Canadian Institute of Planners is hosting Planning Together: World Town Planning Day Student Symposium on Nov. 8. SAPL students will present: The Land We Walk On: Reconciliation and Decolonizing Planning in Education.

FLUFFY THERAPY FRIENDS AT SAPL
SAPLSA is inviting fellow students out for a fun session with some furry friends from PALS. These friendly dogs will uplift mid-term spirits next Friday, Nov. 4 from 12 to 1:30 p.m. at PF2165.
AIA CANADA SOCIETY | 2022 DESIGN AWARDS OPPORTUNITY

The official Canadian Chapter of the American Institute of Architects has opened its 2022 Design Awards competition to students and recent graduates. The submission deadline is tomorrow.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Canadian Wood Council presents The Catherine Lalonde Memorial Scholarship, two Scholarships valued at $2,500 CAD, to graduate students who demonstrate excellence in their studies of structural wood or wood design. The submission deadline is November 1.

PORTFOLIO SESSIONS FOR STUDENTS

The Royal Institute of Canada invites students to a free, virtual workshop on Nov. 16, where Architecture Professor at Toronto Metropolitan University, Vincent Hui, will provide feedback on participants’ portfolio sections. REGISTER HERE

WINTER CITY DESIGN COMPETITION EXTENDED

The City of Calgary is inviting SAPL students to imagine winter wonderland interactive displays along Stephen Avenue and the Beltline for its Winter City Design Competition. The submission deadline has been extended to Nov. 10. LEARN MORE

CELEBRATION OF LIFE: DARREN N.G. RADBOURNE

The School is saddened to announce the passing of alumni Darren N.G. Radbourne (Class of 2009). In his memory, former classmates have organized a Celebration of Life at the Palomino Smokehouse on Nov. 11 at 6 p.m. E-mail Mike Magnan to RSVP.

GRANT ANNOUNCEMENT: IMAGINATION LAB FOUNDATION

The Playful Hybrid Higher Education Project led by SAPL researcher Sandra Abegglen and research assistant Samara Schneider (MArch) has been awarded a $36,000 grant by the Imagination Lab Foundation. The two-year project aims to explore faculty and student experiences in the hybrid classroom to develop guidance for educators on a new education model that focuses on playful and creative pedagogy. READ MORE
JOB OPPORTUNITIES

DESIGN STUDENT NEEDED
The Images of Higher Education project, led by SAPL Researcher Sandra Abegglen, and Tom Burns from the Centre for Professional and Educational Development at the London Metropolitan University in the United Kingdom, is hiring one design student from UCalgary to work and run creative workshops with faculty, as well as to analyze and collate the workshop materials into an Open Educational Resource (OER).

Interested students can apply by sending a short letter of motivation and a CV to: sandra.abegglen@ucalgary.ca and t.burns@londonmet.ac.uk.

The deadline for applications is Nov. 1.

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED
The School of Architecture, Planning, and Landscape (SAPL) and the Cumming School of Medicine (CSM) are hiring two students as research assistants as part of the Evict Radon National study, an interdisciplinary project that aims to understand and engineer out radon gas as a source of lung cancer within the built environment. Interested students must apply before Nov. 13. READ MORE

CO-OP ARCHITECTURE STUDENT POSITION IN VANCOUVER
Global Technology-driven design firm Acardis IBI Group is looking for six Architecture co-op students to join their Vancouver office starting in January. READ MORE

IN THE NEWS
THE CITY OF CALGARY GETS SERIOUS ABOUT BUILDING A NEW ARENA
What does the new building need to take into account? SAPL Professor Tom Keenan weighs in.
CTVNEWS

GALLERIES

REPRESENTING THE CITY: LANDSCAPE PHOTOGRAPHY
Don’t miss the last days of Representing the City: Landscape Photography, an exhibition featuring the work of SAPL students throughout Block Week under the guidance of world-renowned photographer, Luca Nostri, and with coordination by SAPL associate dean and professor, Enrica Dall’Ara.

DESIGN BYTES

THIS CITY CONCEPT BREAKS ARCHITECTURE
The project is expected to house 9 million residents and has an estimated cost of one trillion dollars.
WATCH

THE HOUSE THAT IS ILLEGAL TO BUILD
This video explores the missing middle, what it was, what it still is in Europe, and what it could be in the future in North America.
WATCH

sapl.ucalgary.ca

You have received this message because you are a member of the SAPL Mailman list at the University of Calgary.